The musical score is arranged in a multi-staff format. The top staff is for Percussion, marked with a double bar line and a 4/4 time signature. It features a series of rhythmic patterns starting in the second measure, including eighth and sixteenth notes with accents. Below this are staves for Vibraphone, two Jazz Guitars, four Electric Guitars, and two 7-string Electric Guitars. The Electric Guitars and 7-string guitars have specific melodic lines, with some using slash notation for bends or slides. The 7-string guitars also have fretboard diagrams showing string numbers (0-6) for each string. The Upright Bass staff is marked with a double bar line and a 4/4 time signature, with the instruction 'All' above it. The Synth Strings staff is marked with a double bar line and a 4/4 time signature, with a 'p' dynamic marking and a long slur below it.

Detailed description: This page of a musical score begins at measure 32. The Percussion part features a complex rhythmic pattern with 'x' marks above the staff, indicating cymbal or similar effects. The Vibraphone, J. Gtr., and one E. Gtr. part are marked with a flat line, indicating they are silent. The other E. Gtr. parts play melodic lines with various articulations like accents and slurs. The U. Bass part provides a low-frequency accompaniment. The Syn. Str. part is marked with a flat line, but has a large oval underneath it, possibly indicating a sustained or specific timbre. The score is written in a standard musical notation style with treble and bass clefs.
